TECHNICAL SECURITY EXHIBIT AND LECTURE

1. As a follow-up to the Security Re-Indoctrination Program last month, Security Branch has arranged for the Technical Security Division of the Office of Security to present a special exhibit on audio-counter-measures. A great deal of electronic gear involved in the detection of hostile audio devices and protection against them will be on display. An interesting lecture will be given by one of the technical experts. The exhibit is intended to increase security awareness, and has been one of the most popular exhibits in the Agency. Attendance is voluntary.

2. The exhibition and lecture are scheduled for 19, 20 and 21 July, twice daily at 0930 and 1330 in the auditorium. Group and Staff Chiefs are urged to permit as many employees as possible to attend.
